

NOTICE

Be Aware, Practice Usual Precautions

- Routine planned events or travel disruption issues
- No significant changes to medical or travel risk environment
- Limited risk

Medical Examples

- Dengue in a country where it is usually present
- Seasonal flu spikes
- Measles outbreaks
- Cholera in a country where it is usually present

Security Examples

- Planned protest that is likely to cause incidental risk to bystanders and minor travel disruption
- Ground transport strike that may limit suitable alternative options
- Air travel disruption

ADVISORY

Be Prepared, Take Additional Precautions

- Major developments or issues requiring additional readiness
- Events causing significant travel disruption or increased medical or travel risk

Medical Examples

- Outbreak of a disease in a country where it is not usually present
- Severe air pollution in an area that does not usually experience high levels of pollution
- Extra precautions recommended E.g Pregnant women avoid travel to area with Zika
- Severe disease e.g. viral haemorrhagic fever, meningitis

Security Examples

- Planned or ongoing protests that are likely to cause significant risks to bystanders or major travel disruption
- Violent crime incidents affecting foreigners
- Security incidents such as bombings or attacks in locations where such incidents occur regularly

SPECIAL ADVISORY

Act Now, Take immediate precautions or change travel plans

- Significant unexpected development or major issue causing substantial change to medical or travel risk environment

Medical Examples

- Major natural disasters such as earthquakes or cyclones
- Shortage of food, safe water
- Essential services overwhelmed
- Chemical spills

Security Examples

- Terror attacks such as bombings in major cities
- Major airport closures or transport incidents resulting in many fatalities
- Major natural disasters such as earthquakes or severe tropical storms

EVACUATION NOTIFICATION

Prepare your staff for possible evacuation

- Substantial developments leading to major changes in the travel risk environment that necessitate preparation for evacuation.

Examples

- Escalating civil conflict in Yemen
- Significant reduction in outbound travel options
- Nuclear incident